GenInsights Quarterly Update Q3 2023

Produced by  Global-Roam™

Background

Following the successful release of GenInsights21 on the 15th December 2021, we have fielded calls from some clients for regular updates of some of the materials in that report, and specific questions about the most recent quarter.

We have been addressing these needs through a series of quarterly reports which provide a summation of recent market trends and events. We also offer clients the option of a one-on-one briefing following the release of each report.

The PDF documents would be released in the first few weeks of each new quarter, with the briefing scheduled at a mutually convenient time for you.
